Worship Sequence

Responsive Reading

Leader: Young and old, sons and daughters of God, join in praise and thanksgiving as we worship the one who brings us together.

People: We come to this place, bringing our varied stories, our unique gifts, and our distinct calls to serve.

Leader: We come together in partnership and mission, knowing that we are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to serve others, to seek justice, to offer the hope of the resurrected Christ.

People: We are called to be the body of Christ—a community of believers, a household of faith, a communion of saints, the people of the covenant.

Leader: We are called to the one hope of our high calling—one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God.

People: As members of the body of Christ, we covenant together in this hour to build on our sure foundation of Jesus Christ our Lord and to seek the vision of Christ’s hope for the world.

We depart to serve . . .

We welcome you today, and we rejoice that you have chosen to worship with us. We pray that you have experienced the presence of God and a warm welcome from our church during our worship time. We hope that you will return to worship with us again.

.....
There is a large-print edition of our Sunday bulletin for those who desire it. If you prefer the large-print edition, please ask one of the ushers, who will be glad to give you one.
