Responsive Reading

Leader: Extravagant God, who gave all, even your life, without calculating the cost,

People: your love is everywhere.

Leader: You do not hold your love back to be admired from a distance but pour your precious gift out for us at a great price.

People: Like perfume from an overturned bottle, it spills from your heart into ours.

Leader: So may we love—

People: Purely. Dangerously. Wildly. Extravagantly. Creating a scandal of grace.

Leader: Let us love for love’s sake seeing each day as the chance to do a spontaneous, irrational risky act of love.

ALL: In Christ’s name, whose love so amazing, so divine, demands our souls, our lives, our all.

We welcome you today, and we rejoice that you have chosen to worship with us. We pray that you have experienced the presence of God and a warm welcome from our church during our worship time. We hope that you will return to worship with us again.

The organ music today is in honor of J.S. Bach’s birthday—March 21, 1685.

.....
There is a large-print edition of our Sunday bulletin for those who desire it. If you prefer the large-print edition, please ask one of the ushers, who will be glad to give you one.
