JUST THINKING. . .

182 worshippers were blessed by the choral presentation, "The Weeping Tree" on Palm Sunday. Thank you, Tom, for your leadership and leading us to the cross of Jesus. The Lord's Supper was even more meaningful with thoughts and images from the weeping tree.

We welcomed "Big Mike" Burks mother, Jo Burks, as she came to join the church yesterday.

The EGGstravaganza will take place this coming Saturday, 11:00 on HFBC church property. Estimates on the number of children who will be picking the plastic eggs start at 200 and move upward. Your help will be received with gratitude.

NOTES FROM TOM

Thank you! The Sanctuary was truly outstanding Sunday. Carolyn Bishop and Jonathan Summers did a tremendous job with the narration. Mike Burks, Amy Doolittle, Jimmy Bishop, Michael Rast, and Cynthia Maher added so much to the presentation of the elements. Sandra Howard and Robert Jensen were divine with their duet with the choir. Kay provided wonderful accompaniment. It was a great experience of worship through musical drama.

The observance of the Lord's Supper at the conclusion of the music, served from the foot of the cross was powerful. Some of you may not have known this, but some of the "drops of blood" fell from the cross onto the communion table.

And speaking of the cross—Denise Summers provided us the cross with the bark peeled away in strips from the tree trunk. What a wonderful day!!
