ATLANTA METRO BAPTIST

The 101st Annual Meeting of the Atlanta Metro Baptist Association will be held Sunday, April 26, at 5:45 pm at FBC Chattahoochee. It will not be your grandfather's annual meeting. This year's theme is The Second Hundred Years: Jesus Followers.

- The dinner will be catered by the Varsity.
- As you gather, you will participate in a Missional Book experience.

- Maudriella Mason and Reginald Robbins will be honored for 10 years service in the association.
- Dennis Mitchell, Greenforest Community Baptist Church Senior Pastor, will challenge us to be Jesus Followers in our context of living in Atlanta.
- Charter churches will be honored. (HFBC is one of the charter churches)

- You will be asked to approve the association's new mission statement — to assist congregations in their development of Jesus Followers who live out the Great Commandment, Great Commission, and Acts 1:8.

These are challenging days for the Association, but God is at work in Atlanta and is using this association of churches in God ways.

JUST THINKING. . .

Bob Wiley
Pastor

Easter Sunday always ranks among the top two or three events in the life of vigorous churches. I am overjoyed that we have had three Sundays with great attendance, wonderful and worshipful music, and a good proportion of younger adults and children present. 13 children were in Children's Worship!

I am aware that the preparation and hard work that went into the Eggstravaganza will have positive impact on attendance over the next weeks. How blessed we are to have those who love the Lord, love the church, and give their time and energy again and again.

Join me in praying and working that the Lord will give us 30 new believers as a result of all the activities we are planning throughout the summer. Paul's prayer is fitting for us: "Pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you."

Pastor Bob

NOTES FROM TOM

Tom Howard Minister of Music/

Admin

Where to begin? I am certain that I mentioned last week what a worshipful experience we had together on Palm Sunday. I continue to hear great things about the service.

Our worship Easter Sunday morning was tremendous, as always. Singing "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today" is always a high point of the year for me as we celebrate the resurrection together on the holiest of all days.

Seeing 200 children, along with their parents, all around the outside of the church Saturday for our community Easter Egg Hunt was a great sight. And knowing how much work went into it before-hand by so many people makes it even more incredible.

As we continue to be about God's work, let us remember that it is not about us. "I serve a risen Savior...He lives within my heart."

THANK YOU

Hunt
Review

Dear Hapeville First Baptist Church,

Thank you for the Easter Egg Hunt. I had so much fun. I loved the Easter eggs and the prizes. Thanks for doing this for our community.

Love,
Sophia (age 2)

Sophia and her parents are so right! The Hapeville First Baptist Church did a great work for our community
Saturday morning.

People were here during the week preparing bags of candy for each child who might attend. People were here early Saturday to "hide" eggs and set up prize tables and registration tables. And people stayed here giving out prizes, candy, and refreshments

until the last of the 200 or so children were finished. Thank you, HFBC!
